News

Trading hours over the Christmas new year period will be as per our normal hours less all public holidays. We will be closed Dec 25th, 26th, and 27th.

Elizabeth Bear has won the John W Campbell award for best new writer. Bear is a new author worth taking note of. She is writing hard SF with great character development, military themes but not overpoweringly so. She communicates the perspectives of children, soldiers, scientists and gangsters in a near future world of environmental degradation, small wars, bioengineered and drug enhanced soldiers, emerging space travel and politically subversive artificial intelligence. The story is gritty and scarily believable. Having Canadian troops running UN peacekeeping missions into the US is amusing. Hammered is highly recommended.

Parking Meters are now in operation by Parramatta City Council. You are now much more likely to find street parking near the shop, but will have to pay for it. Be warned there are many new parking tickets (offences) possible now, relating to display of parking tickets, etc. Even if you continue to feed the meter, you are still not allowed to park in the one spot for more than one hour. There is no change to the parking station behind the shop.

Gift Vouchers are available. If you would like a book for Christmas but don't trust the choice by your loved one, suggest an Infinitas Gift Voucher, so you can get the holiday reading you want. Tell them to purchase the voucher under your name and you will get the guild points as a bonus.

China, having recently completed another successful manned space mission, is making suggestions they want to land on the moon and build a space station. Bold statements, but budget must compete with domestic demands. It is good to see some of our species getting off this single planet.

As If, a new website dedicated to publishing reviews of Australian speculative fiction has just been launched:

<http://www.asif.dreamhosters.com>

Sonny Whitelaw, author of the Stargate SG-1 novel City of The Gods dropped into Infinitas almost unannounced as she was in Sydney for a convention, another Australian author doing well internationally.

Magic Casements, a festival of workshops for writers of all sorts of speculative fiction, will run again. It will be on Saturday 18th March 2006 at the NSW Writers Centre. The flash fiction competition will also run again with Infinitas again donating the prizes. The 2005 competition attracted approx 120 stories, and the festival was quite a day.

Conflux preparations continue. To be held 9-12 June 2006 in Canberra. Details at <http://www.conflux.org.au/>

Reviews

The Spook's Curse by Joe Delaney, reviewed by Geoff H.

Once again Joseph Delaney masterfully takes us into the eerie world of Thomas Ward apprentice Spook. The Spooks Curse is book two of The Wardstone Chronicles, a series that I hope will continue for many years as this is a thoroughly brilliant and enjoyable read. Joseph Delaney has a very evocative writing style bringing a creepy tale to life in the mind of the reader and perfectly capturing that "Ye Olde England" feeling of cold moors, chilling fogs, full moons and dead tree branches scratching at the window in the dead of night. In this book the young Tom and his master take on an utterly evil entity called the Bane that is struggling to free itself from its catacomb prison. As if that was not enough they must also face the Church and the powerful Quistor harraying their every step while Tom continues to uncover his mysterious heritage. For some reason this series brings to my mind classical authors like Washington Irving and Edgar Allen Poe. Perhaps it is the familiar subject matter but I like to think that these books have that indefinable "something" that will make them treasured additions to any fantasy bookshelf for years to come.

Hammered by Elizabeth Bear, reviewed by Julianne.

It took me a little while to get into the book. I gather that this is the first of a series of books, as I felt the first two thirds provided a background story for an ongoing series, and that by the last third of the book Elizabeth Bear had hit her writing style and it flowed much better. I liked some of the character development and the intertwining of characters from past backgrounds back together again and the ongoing manipulation of the characters. I think the 2nd book will probably improve upon the first.

Infinitas Short Fiction

FLAV & NERO by Ryk Eksteen

Flav saw the middle-aged, balding man get off the tour bus. He immediately dubbed him Nero, after his mother's brother.

Nero looked as if he could breathe in the atmosphere of ancient Pompeii by just walking down the dusty, cobbled streets. He had his nose in the official English guidebook as he made his way past the Basilica to the open arena of the Forum.

In the distance, towards the north of the Forum, Mt. Vesuvius laid in slumber, waiting to awaken again.

Flav followed Nero as he walked towards the ruins of the Temple of Jupiter. It had seen better days before the End came in the form of the scorching, breathless cloud. He wondered if Nero thought about how the citizens of this once great city felt when the pumiceous ashes started to rain on them. How free men, slaves and masters became equal and minute in the eyes of their Gods. Could he smell the fear, could he feel the panic?

Flav nearly bumped into Nero as he suddenly turned around. Maybe Nero heard the cries of the fish mongers or the fires sizzling in the corner eatery or the rattle of the chariot wheels going down the street.

Did Nero really appreciate why History had always been so fascinated by these people's lives and deaths? Where else in the known world could one take a snapshot of a city that was living one moment and dead the next?

Nero nearly tripped as he crossed the street using the stepping stones. Flav wondered if he didn't find the attempt to create single and dual carriage ways interesting, because it was only 79AD, for goodness sake!

A scene of an enlarged phallus greeted Nero as he stepped into the foyer of the well preserved house of Vetti. The inside walls around the courtyard were covered with mosaics picturing everyday life in Roman times: A slave pouring wine for his mistress, who was lying on a red divan or slaves harvesting the grapes or the dancers, always the dancers. Flav watched Nero as he stood in wonder at the stark contrast between the lives of these women and that of the whores in the brothels. Nero had seen the erotic and sometimes vulgar mosaics on the brothel walls; a place clearly marked by the sign of male fertility, where moans were traded for money.

They overheard a tour guide talking about Vesuvius and how the next eruption could bury the city again.

Nero may have thought that only time would tell if such a catastrophic event was possible, as Flav followed him to the bus and his ride home ... to Rome.

His friends called him Flavius, but that didn't happen anymore. He spent his days following tourists, eavesdropping on conversations he couldn't understand and talking to people who didn't talk back.

He was an observer, a shadow, but most of all ... a restless spirit.

Expand your mind, Enter new worlds.

A sixth installment of the Company series finds immortal Executive Facilitator General Labienus scheming to harness the powers of a rival's protGt and dispose of an inconvenient ghost from his past as part of his plot to take over the world. HC $51.95

R Scott Bakker

Warrior Prophet (Prince of Nothing 02)

Book Two of The Prince of Nothing, finds the Holy War continuing its inexorable march southward. But the suspicion begins to dawn that the real threat comes not from the infidel but from within . . .

Steering souls through the subtleties of word and expression, Kellhus strives to extend his dominion over the Men of the Tusk. The sorcerer Achamian and his lover, Esmenet, submit entirely, only to have their faith - and their love - tested in unimaginable ways. Meanwhile, the warrior Cnaiur falls ever deeper into madness. Convinced that Kellhus will betray their pact to murder his father, Cnaiur turns to the agents of the Second Apocalypse and strikes an infernal bargain.

The Holy War stands on a knife edge. If all is not to be lost, the great powers of the world will have to choose between their most desperate desires and the end of the world. Between hatred and hope. Between Anasurimbor Kellhus and the Second Apocalypse . . . TP $32.95

Stephen Baxter

Exultant (Destiny's Children 02)

Twenty-five thousand years in the future mankind is still locked in its twenty thousand year long war for survival with the Xeelee. Billions die every day and mankind's best soldiers are children, bred to fight and die. The war has gone well but has now stalled at the galaxy's core, the Xeelee stronghold. And as we fight what we cannot believe will be the final battle the consequences of a war fought in the first few nano-seconds after the big bang are coming to fruition. PB $19.95

Transcendent (Destiny's Children 03)

Baxter's ability to combine wildly divergent narrative threads has become a trademark of his writing and has been seen to its best effect in the previous two novels from this sequence. Transcendent, with its melding of a near future narrative that carries a terrible warning about the post-oil and post-global warming world and a narrative thread that tours the fantastically varied diverse species that mankind has become in the impossibly distant future is an example of Baxter at his best. At once a cautionary tale of what we are capable of destroying and a celebration of what we could become this is the capstone to Baxter's best series to date. In Transcendent we find out what happened to the children of the Poole brothers (from Coalescent) and what will happen to mankind. HC $55 TP $32.95

Elizabeth Bear

Follows the classic tale of Guy Montag, a fireman whose job is to start fires, in a world beset by oppression and censorship in which books have been outlawed and reading is punishable by death. Read by Christopher Hurt. Cassette $40.95 CD $40.95 MP3 CD $60

Jim Butcher

Storm Front (Dresden Files 01)

Lost items found. Paranormal Investigations. Consulting. Reasonable rates. No Love Potions, Endless Purses, or Other Entertainment.

Harry Dresden is the best and technically the 'only' at what he does. So when the Chicago P.D. has a case that transcends mortal capabilities, they come to him for answers. For the 'everyday' world is actually full of strange and magical things - and most of them don't play well with humans. That's where Harry comes in. Takes a wizard to catch a - well, whatever. PB $19.95

Fool Moon (Dresden Files 02)

Business has been slow. Okay, business has been dead. And not even of the undead variety. You would think Chicago would have a little more action for the only professional wizard in the phone book. But lately, Harry Dresden hasn't been able to dredge up any kind of work - magical or mundane.

But just when it looks like he can't afford his next meal, a murder comes along that requires his particular brand of supernatural expertise.

A brutally mutilated corpse. Strange-looking paw prints. A full moon. Take three guesses - and the first two don't count . . . PB $19.95

P.D. Cacek

Night Prayers

David Cian

Megawar of the Worlds

Following that last invasion by Martian aliens in 1938, humankind has confiscated and studied the alien technology and found new uses for it, but when the Martians mount a second invasion, Earthlings discover that they are not prepared to counter their enemy's improved technology and that it will take more than a mere cold virus to save the planet. PB $17.95

Susanna Clarke

Jonathan Strange & Mr Norell 3 Vol Boxed Set

Two magicians shall appear in England. The first shall fear me; the second shall long to behold me...The year is 1806. England is beleaguered by the long war with Napoleon, and centuries have passed since practical magicians faded into the nation's past. But scholars of this glorious history discover that one remains: the reclusive Mr Norrell whose displays of magic send a thrill through the country. Proceeding to London, he raises a beautiful woman from the dead and summons an army of ghostly ships to terrify the French. Yet the cautious, fussy Norrell is challenged by the emergence of another magician: the brilliant novice Jonathan Strange. Young, handsome and daring, Strange is the very opposite of Norrell. So begins a dangerous battle between these two great men, which overwhelms the one between England and France. And their own obsessions and secret dabblings with the dark arts are going to cause more trouble than they can imagine. PB $35

Michael Cobley

Shadowmasque (Shadowkings 03)

300 years after the end of the Great Shadowking War, evil is seeping out into the world once more.

Emperor Magramon is dead and his only son, Ilgarion, will finally ascend to the Khatrimantine throne, guided by the Archmage Tangaroth and protected by the Iron Guard. But dark undercurrents are moving beneath the surface of life in Sejeend, the imperial capital, and the agents of an old and malign power are plotting and waiting. Only the Order of Watchers, a band of renegade mages, has any inkling of what is afoot and their investigations lead to grotesque and violent confrontations.

But Ilgarion is obsessed with the empire's enemies, imagined or otherwise, and his pursuit of them can only bring about turmoil. Into this web of uncertainty Corlek Ondene, former captain of the Iron Guard, unknowingly walks and sets in motion a string of clashing events. Can Tashil, Dardan, the Countess Ayoni, and the other Watcher mages, root out the source of evil before its terrifying hunger is set loose? And can the poet Calabos, elderly leader of the Watchers, keep his real identity a secret through all the nightmarish encounters he will undergo?

For the faces of Night dance with the faces of Day, but the weaver of Fate dances alone. TP $29.95

Life Expectancy

In the dazzling new thriller from the master of dark suspense, the hand of fate reaches out to touch an ordinary man with greatness. So long as he is ready. So long as he is, above all, afraid.

Jimmy Tock comes into the world on the very night his grandfather leaves it, as a violent storm rages outside the hospital. At the very height of the storm's fury, Josef Tock suddenly sits up in bed and speaks coherently for the first and last time since his stroke. What he says before he dies is that there will be five dark days in the life of his grandson - five dates whose terrible events Jimmy will have to prepare himself to face.

Rudy Tock is all too ready to discount his father's last words as a dying man's delusional rambling. But then he discovers that Josef also predicted the moment of his grandson's birth to the minute, as well as his exact height, weight and the fact that Jimmy would be born with syndactyly - the unexplained anomaly of fused digits on his left foot. Suddenly, the old man's predictions take on a chilling significance. PB $19.95

Gifts

Orrec, the son of the Brantor of Caspromant, and Gry, daughter of the Brantors of Barre and Rodd, have grown up together, running half-wild across the Uplands. The people there are like their land: harsh and fierce and prideful; ever at war with each other. Only the gifts keep the fragile peace. The Barre gift is calling animals. The women of Cordemant have the power of blinding, or making deaf, or taking away speech. The Rodds can send a spell knife into a man's heart. The Callems can move heavy things - even buildings, even hills. The Caspro gift is the worst and best of all: it is the gift of undoing: an insect, an animal, a place. . . Orrec and Gry are the heirs to Caspro and Barre. Gry's gift runs true, but she refuses to call animals for the hunt. Orrec too is a problem, for his gift of undoing is wild: he cannot control it - and that is the most dangerous gift of all. PB $15.95

Worldstorm

'When the Worldstorm first stirred in the distant reaches of the earth, the people of the earth were torn asunder and thrown into disarray. For a time, all was panic and terror. But out of this panic and terror and division a new order coalesced, and the four Inclinations were known, and named' or so at least one of the old stories has it. Elder Ayn doesn't really know why the Worldstorm comes to wreak devastation on the world any more than the next man. But, being a previsionary, he does know the exact time and nature of his death. He will be murdered and he will do nothing to prevent the killing blow. Elder Ayn also knows why he has left the splendid academic isolation of Stonehaven and gone out into the world. He knows where his quest will take him. But he's not about to tell his scribe, Khollo. And meanwhile the world's order is breaking down. War is brewing between the Earth and the Fire Inclined, people who can shake the ground with a fist or pull fire out of the air with a simple thought. A storm is coming. And a girl who fears she is Extraordinary is about to learn the truth ... PB $19.95

Provender Glead

It is the 20th century. But it is a very different 20th century. Ever since the Borgias and the Medicis united and set the mold the world has been run by the great families. In Britain it is the Gleadys who rule supreme, their empire built on spice trading in the 17th and 18th centuries. Their rule is supreme but their rule relies on an heir and the family's oldest son, Provender, shows no sign of wanting to settle down and get married. And then, at the yearly Glead party, Provender is kidnapped. His father, Prosper, suspects the greatest of the German families, a baroque collection of poseurs who claim to be vampires. It is only the latest in a long line of outrages. Enough is enough. Prosper pulls the strings of family loyalty and Europe is tipped into a second war. Meanwhile the man who has kidnapped Provender, inspired by a revolutionary anti-family tract, is about to find out an uncomfortable truth about his master. And about the author of the revolution. HC $59.95 TP $32.95

Confessions of a Pod Person

The first collection from Australia's clown prince of SF writing.

It isn't easy being a businessman, when the alien ambassador just want to eat you ... ('Catflap')

Hidden inside the ventilation duct, Lars Janssen peered at the Alien Space Nazi's head. It had dandruff ... ('Alien Space Nazis Must Die!')

Later, Eric would berate himself for not just sodding off home as soon as he heard the words 'motivational tour' ... ('The Shadow Over Bexley')

McKenzie's work is reminiscent of Eric Frank Russell, Robert Sheckley and Terry Pratchett. But where Sheckley gets political, Pratchett pokes fun at us humans, and Russell transfers human foibles onto hapless aliens, McKenzie lets fly at whoever or whatever will stand still long enough. The joke is on anything that moves, and it's very, very funny. PB $18.95

Moorcock's Miscellany

In a career that spans more than five decades, Michael Moorcock has done more than any writer to demolish the confines of genre in English literature. His prodigious output has made an indelible impact on the science fiction of the golden age and the literature of the counter-culture. More recently his work has radically revised the London of our shared experience and created startling new readings in the history of the last century.

Now Moorcock introduces an anthology of breathtaking scope and ambition in which he seeks out new connections between the fiction, poetry and journalism that has informed and covertly constructed the imaginative landscape in which we live. From creation of the Yellow Book, to the radical feminism of Andrea Dworkin, from the Mars of Edgar Rice Burroughs to plans for an inland sea in the heart of the Sahara, from the high modernism of the mid-century to Moorcock's own invention, the internet, Moorcock's Miscellany is an anthology unlike any before conceived.

The Miscellany is both a personal guide to the literature that has inspired one of our greatest writers and a history of our times seen through a study of its unacknowledged legislation. PB $24.95

Woken Furies (Takeshi Kovacs)

This is high action, ideas driven noir SF of the highest order. Morgan has already established himself as an SF author of global significance. Takeshi Kovacs has come home. Home to Harlan's World. An ocean planet with only 5% of its landmass poking above the dangerous and unpredictable seas. Try and get above the weather in anything more sophisticated than a helicopter and the Martian orbital platforms will burn you out of the sky. And death doesn't just wait for you in the seas and the skies. On land, from the tropical beaches and swamps of Kossuth to the icy, machine-infested wastes of New Hokkaido the hard won gains of the Quellist revolution have been lost. The First Families, the corporations and the Yakuza have a stranglehold on everything. Embarked on a journey of implacable retribution for a lost love, Kovacs is blown off course and into a maelstrom of political intrigue and technological mystery as the ghosts of Harlan's World and his own violent past rise to claim their due. Quellcrist Falconer is back from the dead, they say, and hunting her down for the First Families is a savage young Envoy called Kovacs who's been in storage PB $19.95

The Anubis Gates (Fantasy Masterworks)

Brendan Doyle is a twentieth-century English professor who travels back to 1810 London to attend a lecture given by English romantic poet Samuel Taylor Coleridge. This is a London filled with deformed clowns, organised beggar societies, insane homunculi and magic. When he is kidnapped by gypsies and consequently misses his return trip to 1983, the mild-mannered Doyle is forced to become a street-smart con man, escape artist, and swordsman in order to survive in the dark and treacherous London underworld. He defies bullets, black magic, murderous beggars, freezing waters, imprisonment in mutant-infested dungeons, poisoning, and even a plunge back to 1684. Coleridge himself and poet Lord Byron make appearances in the novel, which also features a poor tinker who creates genetic monsters and a werewolf that inhabits others' bodies when his latest becomes too hairy. PB $22.95

'Be careful what you wish for. You never know who might be listening.' There's no getting away from it. From whichever angle, Death is a horrible, inescapable business. But someone's got to do it. So if Death decides to take a well-earned moment to uncover the meaning of life and discover himself in the process, then there is going to be a void of specific dimensions that needs to be occupied, particularly so when there is trouble brewing in Discworld. There aren't too many who are qualified to fill Death's footsteps and it certainly doesn't help the imminent cataclysm that the one person poised between the mortal and the immortal is only sixteen years old... PB $19.95

Interesting Times (Discworld 17 Anniversary Edition)

A foot on the neck is nine points of the law There are many who say that the art of diplomacy is an intricate and complex dance between two informed partners, determined by an elaborate set of elegant and unwritten rules. There are others who maintain that its merely a matter of who carries the biggest stick. Like when a large, heavily fortified and armoured empire makes a faintly menacing request of a much smaller, infinitely more cowardly neighbour. It would be churlish, if not extremely dangerous, not to comply particularly if all they want is a wizard, and they dont specify whether competence is an issue PB $19.95

Maskerade (Discworld 18 Anniversary Edition)

I thought: opera, how hard can it be? Songs. Pretty girls dancing. Nice scenery. Lots of people handing over cash. Got to be better than the cut-throat world of yoghurt, I thought. Now everywhere I go theres Death, to be precise. And plenty of it. In unpleasant variations. This isnt real life. This isnt even cheesemongering. Its opera. Where the music matters and where an opera house is being terrorised by a man in evening dress with a white mask, lurking in the shadows, occasionally killing people, and most worryingly, sending little notes, writing maniacal laughter with five exclamation marks. Opera can do that to a man. In such circumstances, life has obviously reached that desperate point where the wrong thing to do has to be the right thing to do. PB $19.95

Feet of Clay (Discworld 19 Anniversary Edition)

Sorry? said Carrot. If its just a thing, how can it commit murder? A sword is a thing - he drew his own sword; it made an almost silken sound - and of course you cant blame a sword if someone thrust it at you, sir. For members of the City Watch, life consists of troubling times, linked together by periods of torpid inactivity. Now is one such troubling time. People are being murdered, but theres no trace of anything alive having been at the crime scene. Is there ever a circumstance in which you can blame the weapon not the murderer? Such philosophical questions are not the usual domain of the citys police, but theyre going to have to start learning fast PB $19.95

Koji SuzukiSpiral (Ring 02)*

Stunning, cutting-edge thriller with a chilling supernatural twist from Japan's stylish new literary star, the acclaimed author of Ring. Pathologist Ando is at a low point in his life. His small son's death from drowning has resulted in the break-up of his marriage and he is suffering from traumatic recurrent nightmares. Work is his only escape and his depressing world of loneliness and regret is shaken up when an old rival from medical school, Ryuji Takayama, turns up on his slab ready to be dissected.

Through Ryuji's bizarre demise Ando learns of a series of mysterious deaths that seem to have been caused by a sinister virus. From beyond the grave Ryuji appears to be leading Ando towards a suspicious videotape - could this hold the answer to the riddle of the strange deaths? Or is it merely the first clue? When Ando meets Mai, an attractive former student of Ryuji's, his desire to solve the puzzle transcends curiosity and becomes a matter of life or death.

Spiral is the stunning sequel to the highly acclaimed Ring and can also be read as a standalone. PB $19.95

Dark Water

A selection of spooky short stories from the Japanese master of suspense, the acclaimed author of Ring. The film Dark Water, based on the first story in the collection, is due for release in 2006.

Suzuki demonstrates the power of his psychological insight into the mechanics of fear in this highly atmospheric collection of stories unified by the theme of water.

Yoshimi Matsubara lives with her five-year-old daughter Ikuko in a depressing apartment block in Tokyo Bay. When a child's red bag keeps turning up in unexpected places, Yoshino's sanity seems to be threatened and she soon begins to fear that her daughter's life is at risk.

Fisherman Hiroyuki is embittered and unhappy in his marriage. But getting rid of his wife turns out to be anything but easy, especially when his own boat seems to be against him.

Family man Sugiyama finds himself trapped in an underwater cave. Can he find a way to communicate with his beloved son one last time?

Just three examples from this beautifully crafted collection of stories filled with suspense, tension and drama. A perfect introduction to one of Japan's top literary stars. HC $29.95

The Lord of the Rings Slipcase (50th Anniversary) (Lord of the Rings)

Since it was first published in 1954, The Lord of the Rings has been a book people have treasured. Steeped in unrivalled magic and otherworldliness, its sweeping fantasy has touched the hearts of young and old alike. One hundred million copies of its many editions have been sold around the world, and occasional collectors' editions become prized and valuable items of publishing. Now, to celebrate the 50th anniversary of its first publication, the text has been fully restored with almost 400 corrections – with the full co-operation of Christopher Tolkien – making it the definitive version of the text, and as close as possible to the version that J.R.R. Tolkien wanted. In addition to now having the definitive version of the text, this paperback set also includes a companion volume, The Lord of the Rings: A Reader's Companion, a unique annotated guide to the text, which will enhance the reader's enjoyment and understanding of the book of the 20th century. PB $75

The Return of the King (50th Anniversary edition) (Lord of the Rings 03) PB $19.95

Lord of the Rings (50th Anniversary edition) (Lord of the Rings Omnibus) PB $39.95

Impossible to describe in a few words, JRR Tolkien's great work of imaginative fiction has been labelled both a heroic romance and a classic fantasy fiction. By turns comic and homely, epic and diabolic, the narrative moves through countless changes of scene and character in an imaginary world which is totally convincing in its detail. Tolkien created a vast new mythology in an invented world which has proved timeless in its appeal. Now, to celebrate the 50th anniversary of its first publication, the text has been fully restored with almost 400 corrections – with the full co-operation of Christopher Tolkien – making it the definitive version of the text, and as close as possible to the version that J.R.R. Tolkien wanted. In addition to now having the definitive version of the text, this paperback features special packaging to commemorate the golden anniversary of the Nation's Big Read.

Smith of Wootton Major (Extended Edition)

In 1964 J.R.R. Tolkien was invited to write the preface to a new edition of "The Golden Key" by George MacDonald. Accepting the invitation, Tolkien proposed the preface would explain the meaning of Fairy through a brief story about a cook and a cake. But the story grew, and took on a life of its own, and the preface was abandoned. Tolkien eventually gave it the title, "Smith of Wootton Major", to suggest an early work by P.G. Wodehouse or a story in the Boy's Own paper. It was published in 1967 as a small hardback, complete with charming black and white illustrations by Pauline Baynes. Now, almost 40 years on, a facsimile of this early illustrated edition is being republished, but in addition to this enchanting story the new edition includes: • Tolkien's own account of the genesis of the story • Tolkien's Time-Scheme and Characters • Tolkien's discussion of the shadowy but important figure of "Grandfather Rider" and a lengthy, 10,000-word essay on the nature of Faery • Early draft versions and alternative endings • Foreword by the editor, containing a brief history of the story's composition and publication, and its connection to Tolkien's other published stories Contained within "Smith of Wootton Major" are many intriguing links to the world of Middle-earth, as well as Tolkien's other tales, and in this 'extended edition' the reader will finally discover the full story behind this major piece of short fiction. HC $34.95

Alan Lee

The Lord of the Rings Sketchbook (Lord of the Rings)

In this large-format hardback Alan Lee reveals in pictures and in words how he created the images in the authorised illustrated edition of The Lord of the Rings. These images would prove so powerful, matching perfectly with Tolkien's own vision, that they would eventually define the look of Peter Jackson's movie trilogy and earn Alan a coveted Academy Award. The book is filled with over 150 of his sketches and early conceptual pieces to show how the project progressed from idea to finished art. It also contains 20 colour paintings reproduced in full-page glory, together with numerous examples of his conceptual art produced for the films and brand new pieces drawn specially for this book. It also includes an exclusive foreword written by Sir Ian McKellen. The Lord of the Rings Sketchbook provides a fascinating insight into the imagination of the man who painted Tolkien's vision, firstly onto the page and then in three dimensions on the cinema screen. It will also be of interest to many of the 100,000 people who have bought the illustrated Lord of the Rings as well as for budding artists and illustrators interested in unlocking the secrets of book illustration.

Wayne G Hammond & Christina Scull

Lord of the Rings: A Reader's Companion (Lord of the Rings)

A unique insight into the evolution of The Lord of the Rings, detailing how mistakes crept in almost from the first printing, how Tolkien changed the text during his lifetime, posthumous changes made by Christopher Tolkien and a previously unpublished Guide to the Names in The Lord of the Rings, written by Tolkien himself. Since its first publication fifty years ago, The Lord of the Rings has generated an almost unparalleled interest from both fans and critics alike. Every detail of its 500,000+ words has been examined and discussed, making it the most widely studied – and enjoyed – work of fiction of the 20th century. In The Lord of the Rings: Fifty Years, Wayne G. Hammond and Christina Scull unravel the story of how an epic battle has been fought for decades, first by Professor Tolkien, then by his son, Christopher, to maintain the integrity of this huge story. They examine the work chapter by chapter. The text will also be illustrated with examples of manuscripts, maps and drawings that Tolkien created as he was writing the story, including some that have not appeared in print before. HC $55 PB $22.95

A R R R RobertsThe Sellamillion*

The Sellamillion is NOT a parody of Tolkien's The Silmarillion. That would be pointless because although all Tolkien fans have a copy, only three of them have read past page 40. It is, however, a parody of all that Tolkien created as he worked on Lord of the Rings. The history of the elderly days. Early missing drafts of Lord of the Rings. A correspondence between Tolkien and his editor debating the merit of Bellybutton Stud of Doom over Ring of Power, and an experimental version of Lord of the Rings written by Dr Seuss. Let the hilarity ensue ... PB $14.95

Harry TurtledoveOut of the Darkness (Darkness 06)*

This is the final instalment of Harry Turtledove's masterful series of a magical world at war. PB $18.95

The Bridge of the Seperator (Videssos)

Destined to become the ecumenical patriarch of the Empire of Vedessos, Rhavas witnesses the destruction of his world when civil war erupts and the Khamorth barbarians attack from across the border, forcing Rhavas to flee.

Those who fall off the bridge during judgment in the afterlife tumble down to Skotes' ice forevermore, but when evil seems to have swallowed the whole world, what is Rhavas--a cleric who reverences logic as well as goodness-- supposed to believe? HC $49.95

Homeward Bound (Worldwar Colonisation 04)

The enthralling climax to the alternate-history series that began with Worldwar. In his groundbreaking Worldwar series, Harry Turtledove introduced the Race, a technically-advanced army of alien lizards that struck at the battlefields where Hitler clashed with Stalin and the Japanese Empire took on the United States. PB $19.95

Days of Infamy

Following the December 7, 1941 Japanese assault on U.S. naval forces in Pearl Harbor, Japanese forces invade Hawaii, planning to use the islands resources to launch an offensive against the western coast of the continental United States, in the novel of alternate history. PB $19.95

In the fabled city-state of Schaerisa to pay his kingdom's respects to the late co-emperor, Valdar, heir to the throne of Dhulon, comes face to face with his former mentor, the sorcerer Nyrthim, who had faked his own death in order to investigate rumors that long banished demons have been attempting to return to the world. PB $19.95

Jack WhyteThe Lance Thrower (Camulod Chronicles 06)*

Educated in the ways of logic and battle, Clothar of the devastated city of Gaul is sent by his mentor to assist the young king Arthur in his plan to instill law and justice throughout the barbaric kingdom, but their efforts are tested by their shared love for the same woman. PB $19.95

Sean WilliamsThe Hanging Mountains (Cataclysm 03)*

The latest instalment of this multiple award-winning series.

Ancient enemies stalk ghostly fog forests as legends come to life.

The Divide is flooded. Habryn Kail and the Homunculus are missing, presumed dead. Sal and his companions seek the source of the flood in the legendary Hanging Mountains, hoping to head off a crisis that was put in motion a thousand years ago. As conflict erupts between two long-forgotten civilisations, the outsiders find allies are hard to come by. Taken captive and separated, they uncover uncomfortable truths about the world and how it relates to the one that came before - our world.

Something dark and deadly is stirring in the heart of the mountains. And the closer it comes to waking, the more certain it seems the Homunculus may not have been the enemy at all . . . PB $19.95

F Paul WilsonMidnight Mass*

With the fall of the Soviet Union, the dark forces of the vampires are engulfing the world, plotting to use the blood of all humankind as the source of the undead existence, as a small group of determined humans--a priest falsely accused of abuse, his niece, a renegade nun turned vampire killer, and a rabbi--embark on a plan of resistance that includes the destruction of the vampire king of New York. PB $17.95

Ann Tonsor ZeddiesBlood and Roses*

In 1920, with her years of running supplies to front line combat zones finally behind her, Jayne Taylor sets out to build a new future of herself and the war orphans she has brought back to America, only to find herself working with American federal authorities to battle a dangerous conspiracy involving the Japanese Empire and strange beings from another world. TP $30.95

King Arthur's World

Legend, anecdote, historical fact and shadowy speculation - this is the world of King Arthur as it was seen in medieval times when the stories were first written down. A map of Arthur's Britain, the origins of the Round Table, the skills of Merlin and the sorceress Morgan le Fay, all help to create a rich background to the tales themselves. Punctuated with engaging quotations from medieval texts and with highly entertaining lists of places, characters and magical things, the book is full of information about medieval life: about knights, castles, heraldry, troubadours and courtly love, how to joust and win a fair lady, how to be a butler, and what to expect at a banquet (roast swan and peacock pie). Called 'a box of delights' by the TES and 'a fascinating guide to the Arthurian world' by the Guardian, this was first published in 1998 as The King Who Was and Will Be. It is now completely repackaged with line drawings inspired by medieval woodcuts. PB $16.95

Pirates! An Adventure With Whaling (Pirates 02)

Since she sailed away after the pirates' adventure with scientists, the pirates' boat has been somewhat battered by the rigours of ocean life. Her mast keeps collapsing, her wheel has broken off and several of the pirates have ended up with nasty splinters. Realising his paintings can only cover up the leaks for so long, the Pirate Captain decides he must pay a visit to Cutlass Liz's boat yard (Liz is 'famed for having the best face on the entire eastern seaboard') and trade his ship in for a newer model. Dazzled by the swan-lined curtains and tennis courts of 'The Lovely Emma', and frankly, by Cutlass Liz's lovely face, the Pirate Captain makes a rash decision and finds himself with a debt of six thousand doubloons, and very little time in which to pay it before the sands of Liz's hourglass run out and he and his crew are gutted like fish. And so the Pirates set forth on a courageous voyage and a desperate quest for some ready cash. Their adventure will take them from the Florida Keys to the bright lights of Las Vegas, to the ends of the earth in search of a mythical white whale, and even, perhaps into the dark depths of madness. But hopefully, they'll be home in time for tea.

Ingo

A spellbinding magical adventure. Master storyteller Helen Dunmore writes the story of Sapphire and her brother Conor, and their discovery of Ingo, a powerful and exciting world under the sea.

You'll find the mermaid of Zennor inside Zennor church. She fell in love with a human, but she was a Mer creature and so she couldn't come to live with him up in the dry air. She swam up the stream to hear him sing, then one day he swam down it and was never seen again. He became one of the Mer people ...

Sapphire's father told her that story when she was little. When he is lost at sea she can't help but think of that old myth; she's convinced he's still alive.

The following summer her brother Conor keeps disappearing for hours on end. She goes to the cove to find him, but instead meets Faro, an enigmatic and intriguing Merman. He takes her to Ingo and introduces her to a world she never knew existed. She must let go of all her Air thoughts and embrace the sea and all things Mer.

After her first visit she is entranced. Ingo blood runs strongly in Sapphy, and Conor fears she will leave the Air world for good. He pleads with her to ignore her craving for the sea and stay safely in their cottage up on the cliff.

But not only is Sapphy intoxicated by the Mer world, she longs to see her father once more. And she's sure she can hear him singing across the water:

I wish I was away in Ingo

Far across the briny sea.      Ages 10-14 TP $19.95

How to Get Published

Everyone has a book in them, they say. Having gone through the process of extracting a masterpiece from your head what happens next? In most cases the book will end up in a desk drawer as a pile of papers or inside a computer. But that's not what you want, is it? You wrote it to get published. You want to see your name in print, to go into bookshops and see your book on the shelves. You want to feel that moment of pride when you see someone on the bus reading your book.

The concept that a good book will always find a publisher is outdated and over-simplistic. The truth is that most writers remain unpublished because they pay attention only to the quality of their writing. Publishers are business people. Their job is to make money from selling books. They know that high quality writing alone isn't always enough to make a profitable book, so when choosing which manuscripts to sign up for publication they think about many more elements than just the words on the page. After 15 years in the book industry, Stewart Ferris has identified all of the crucial factors that publishers consider besides good writing. How to Get Published reveals for the first time these inside secrets and provides tactics that any writer can use to create the perfect conditions for their own 'lucky break' to happen. PB $21.95

Lost in Space: Geographies of Science Fiction

Science fiction - one of the most popular literary, cinematic and televisual genres - has received increasing academic attention in recent years. For many theorists science fiction opens up a space in which the here-and-now can be made strange or remade; where virtual reality and cyborg are no longer gimmicks or predictions, but new spaces and subjects. Lost in Space brings together an international collection of authors to explore the diverse geographies of space exploring imagination, nature, scale, geopolitics, modernity, time, identity, the body, power relations and the representation of space. The essays explore the writings of a broad selection of writers including J. G. Michael White's brilliantly absorbing new biography argues that Leonardo da Vinci was, through the scope of his investigations, his experimental method and his desire to push back the boundaries of knowledge, nothing less than 'The First Scientist'. Weaving this history of early scientific endeavour into the colourful story of Leonardo's personal life - the deprivations of his childhood, his homosexuality, his relationships with contemporaries from Machiavelli to Borgia - Leonardo: The First Scientist presents a thought-provoking study of the definitive amalgamation of art and science. TP $28

CS Lewis

In 1997, The Lion, The Witch And The Wardrobe was voted the most influential book of the twentieth century by teachers, librarians and parents in the UK. The last six US Presidents have all claimed C. S. Lewis to be one of their favourite writers (as have Margaret Thatcher and Tony Blair). He was an acclaimed academic, a renowned Christian thinker and apologist, the author of dozens of non-fiction books and a founder member of The Inklings (with J.R.R. Tolkien). Lewis fought in the First World War trenches and became a famous broadcaster known as 'the apostle to sceptics' during World War II: his newspaper articles and radio programmes were well known. He led what was considered by many of his contemporaries to be a rather bohemian life in Oxford, living with a much older woman, a widow named Janie Moore. Late in life he married an American divorcee who (as documented in the movie Shadowlands) died tragically of cancer four years into their marriage. TP $29.95

Interactive story lines advance by the choices you make, leading toward more than a dozen possible endings. Do you have what it takes to be the Slayer, or will you fail and summon a successor?

Because of the high incidence of death and violence, the Mayor of Sunnydale has invited a woman called Belakane to speak at Sunnydale High School. Her program, "Be the Ultimate You!" builds self-esteem in teenagers. But Belakane is a demon antlike queen, whose test -- and subsequent nurturing of the skills she discovers -- is simply part of her plot to enlist workers to build her colony, and to find mates to help her populate it. Soon Sunnydale High is full of kids with only one trait each: aggressive Slayer, brainy Willow, helpful Oz...and Belakane has only just begun... PB $12.95

Picture Perfect

Cameron Dokey

A face revealed, and rage unleashed -- old anger set upon the world. Three sisters must come together to fight or worse fates will surely be unfurled... The Bay Mirror is covering the grand reopening of Mural House, a San Francisco landmark built in the 1920s, and Phoebe invites her sisters to attend. Piper's got her hands full with P3, but Paige happily tags along to see the once-famous artists' colony that housed great art, passion, and scandal. Notable for all three is the story of the building's architect, William Lancaster, who, during the construction, fell in love with an artist -- a young divorcée named Isabella Marshall. Their relationship was tumultuous at best, eventually ending in tragedy...and in William's disappearance.

The hoopla surrounding Mural House's reopening has made William and Isabella's love affair legendary. With the permission of Isabella's daughter, Lucile, Phoebe has been reprinting the couple's love letters in her column. She joins Lucile, now an elderly woman, at the gala's main event -- the unveiling of a long-painted-over mural. Lucile is visibly upset when the mural is revealed; in fact, she seems horrified. Before passing out from fear, she whispers, "The evil has been released..." PB $14.95

1st Doctor: *The Time Travellers

Simon Guerrier

When the TARDIS touches down in London, 2006, schoolteachers Ian and Barbara are eager to explore their own future. But they have arrived in the middle of a war, a war that has left London a ruin. Mistaken for vagrants, and with no way of proving otherwise, the Doctor's granddaughter and companions find themselves in the execution block on the Isle of Dogs. The Doctor has no choice but to help the military refine its ultimate weapon. The British Army has discovered time travel. And the consequences are already terrible. PB $14.95

7th Doctor: *Atom Bomb Blues

Andrew Cartmel

Los Alamos, New Mexico, 1945. The Second World War is coming to its bloody conclusion, and in the American desert the race is on to build an atomic bomb. The fate of the world is at stake - in more ways than one. Someone, or something, is trying to alter the course of history at this most delicate point. And destroy the human race. Posing as a nuclear scientist with Ace as his research assistant, the Doctor plays detective among the Manhattan Project scientists, while desperately trying to avoid falling under suspicion himself. As the minutes tick away to the world's first atom bomb blast, the Doctor and Ace find themselves up to their necks in spies, aliens of the flying saucer variety, and some very nasty saboteurs from another dimension. PB $14.95

Travels in Time and Space CD (Tin)

Doctor Who and the Daleks is the Doctor's first exciting adventure with the ruthless natives of the planet Skaro, and the book in which Ian Chesterton and Barbara Wright join the Doctor and Susan aboard the TARDIS. In Doctor Who and the Crusaders, the scene of adventure is the 12th Century Holy Land, where the TARDIS crew encounters Richard the Lionheart in his war against the Saracens. Doctor Who and the Zarbi finds the TARDIS drawn to the eerie planet Vortis, on which the Doctor and his companions encounter a host of alien creatures including the Menoptera, the Animus and the Zarbi. Reader William Russell played Ian Chesterton in the original television series; this makes him a superb choice of reader for these classic, fondly-remembered books (published as Target Paperbacks in the 1970s). CD $160

A Teaspoon and An Open Mind: The Science of Doctor Who

Michael White

How do you build a Tardis? What are the secrets of teleportation? Could Cybermen take over the world? Is telepathy possible - even for an alien? Will extraterrestrials one day visit earth? Can a robotic dog catch a cold . . . ?

Take a journey with the Time Lords as Michael White guides us through the real science behind Doctor Who.

Here he shows us how one of the world's best-loved science-fiction programmes is actually based on genuine theories - some of which could soon become a reality. Drawing on the latest discoveries, and on shows from Star Trek to The X-Files and films like Twelve Monkeys and Contact, he asks (among other things): is time travel possible through a wormhole? What are the dangers? Could we make contact with life on other planets? How could aliens get here? And how soon until creatures like the Daleks become a reality?

A book for avid fans and the merely curious, A Teaspoon and an Open Mind reveals that reality is even stranger than science fiction . . . HC $35

The Shooting Scripts

On the 26th of March 2005, Doctor Who returned to our screens after an absence of 16 years, with a new Doctor, a new assistant and thirteen thrilling new adventures. This book collects together the entire shooting scripts for the first series. Seven of the scripts are by Russell T Davies, with the remainder by Steven Moffat, Robert Shearman, Paul Cornell and The League of Gentlemen's Mark Gatiss. Each story contains the essential ingredients of time travel, adventure, and the mixing of the ordinary with the fantastical that have always characterized the series, while at the same time being thoroughly in tune with contemporary culture and society. This is a Doctor Who for an age defined by irony, technology and celebrity, and the shadow cast by 9/11. It is also a more cinematic series, with fast cutting and special effects that will satisfy viewers brought up on contemporary film and television sci-fi. The shooting scripts give a unique insight into how the series was visualized and acted. Alongside the exciting action sequences and dialogue are hints about the characters' emotions, and evocations of the settings in which their adventures take place. Pacey, atmospheric and thoroughly absorbing, these scripts practically read like novels. Each of the scripts will be illustrated with full-colour screen grabs, ensuring the book appeals to broad audience. Introductions by the writers will explain the inspirations for the new series and the fascinating process of creating a Doctor Who script. HC $49.95

On Earth As It Is in Hell

Brian Hodge

Fifty years ago, a blood-red, cloven-hoofed demon was conjured up by Axis powers at the end of World War II, but adopted by the United States government, which gave him the name Hellboy and raised him in secrecy. Today, Hellboy is a top field agent for the Bureau for Paranormal Research and Defense. He questions the unknown -- then beats it into submission. His latest case: Angels have attacked the Vatican, destroying an entire floor of the building's precious library. That's a new one, even for the Bureau for Paranormal Research and Defense. The BPRD dispatches Hellboy and his amphibious colleague, Abe Sapien, to investigate. When they arrive on the scene, they discover that thousands of documents from all eras of history have been destroyed -- except for one, saved from the holy fire by an obsessive scholar. His prize? An ancient scroll allegedly written by Jesus the Nazarene -- decades after the crucifixion. Hellboy's first thought is that the scroll was the focus of the seraphim's attack -- but why would heavenly creatures undertake such violence and ruin? The answer to this puzzle will lead Hellboy down a terrifying trail to ancient gods, vengeful demons, and a hidden world made of the purest evil.... PB $14.95

King Kong (Novelisation)

Christopher Golden

With vaudeville in its death throes, actress Ann Darrow finds herself out of a job in Depression-era New York. But her luck changes when she meets Carl Denham -- entrepreneur, raconteur, adventurer, and filmmaker -- a man struggling to make a name for himself in the entertainment industry. Bold, ebullient, and charismatic, Denham leads Ann, along with famed playwright Jack Driscoll and the crew of the tramp steamer Venture, on a faraway filmmaking expedition, to the Indian Ocean and the legendary, primordial jungles of Skull Island. It is here that Denham hopes to capture on film the waning undiscovered wonders of the world -- wonders available to anyone for the price of admission. What they all find instead are living nightmares and deadly perils in a hostile place that time forgot...where a director is willing to risk everything for the sake of his film...where a writer will test his physical courage and his heart...and where a beautiful actress will forge an unshakable bond with the most fantastic creature ever to walk the earth.... PB $14.95

Matt Costello

The official prequel novel to the Universal Pictures movie event!

Entrepreneur and filmmaker Carl Denham struggles to make a name for himself in the entertainment industry -- but all of his charisma and showmanship may have to take a back seat to the greatest adventure yet to come... Vaudeville regular and struggling actress Ann Darrow leaves the lights of Broadway behind for the sand and shores of Atlantic City -- and makes a very personal connection that will have ramifications on a life-altering experience yet to come... Former Navy diver Sam Kelly, down on his luck in a Depression-ravaged San Francisco, throws caution to the wind and takes a shaky job on an even shakier pearl-diving ship, destined for one of the most extraordinary -- and dangerous -- locales on the face of the earth... Three individuals leading separate lives -- all inextricably bound by the hands of fate, each drawing inexorably closer to a place that will test the very limits of their humanity and change the world forever.... PB $14.95

Kong Unbound: The Cultural Impact, Pop Mythos and Scientific Plausibility of a Cinematic Classic

Karen Haber

In 1933, Merian C. Cooper, Ernest Schoedsack, and Willis O'Brien created more than movie magic. King Kong is a pop-cultural icon and a central part of American mythology. But more than just another "Beauty and the Beast" tale, Kong Unbound also allows us to examine such themes as: The Great Depression and America's place in the world; Kong as Avatar of Repressed Sexual Energy; Kong as a Symbol of Slavery and Racism; Kong as Alternate Paleontology; The Triumph of Technology over the Natural World. These themes and more are explored in this wonderful collection of insightful essays. PB $19.95

The World of King Kong

It was an uncharted island somewhere off the coast of Sumatra, it was a land whispered about by merchants and sailors. It was a place so unbelievable that no one dared believe in its existence. Except one man, the extraordinary showman Carl Denham. Many will, of course, remember his show on Broadway and its tragic ending. But New York is not where the story ended, it is where it began.

In 1935 a joint expedition of several prominent universities and organizations called Project Legacy was launched. Its stated mission goal was to create the first of several field guides to Skull Island, a land filled with creatures existing outside of their time, where dinosaurs roamed, evolved, and still lived. Only a year later it was discovered that the island was doomed; the geological forces that had formed the island were now tearing it apart. There were only seven more abbreviated expeditions to the island before its destruction and the start of World War II.

The journals, sketches, and detailed notes of the scientists who braved Skull Island would have continued to gather dust on shelves across the planet were it not for the work of the authors of this book. Here for the first time is their work, collected in a comprehensive edition of the natural history of this lost island. Here is The World of Kong. HC $59.95

Robert GoddardSight Unseen*

One summer's day in 1981 a two-year-old girl, Tamsin Hall, was abducted during a picnic at the famous prehistoric site of Avebury in Wiltshire. Her seven-year-old sister Miranda was knocked down and killed by the abductor's van. The girls were in the care of their nanny, Sally Wilkinson. One of the witnesses to this tragic event was David Umber, a Ph.D student who was waiting at the village pub to keep an appointment with a man called Griffith who claimed he could help Umber with his researches into the letters of 'Junius', the pseudonymous eighteenth century polemicist who was his Ph.D subject. But Griffin failed to show up, and Umber never heard from him again. Tamsin Hall was never seen again either. The Hall family fell apart under the strain. Sally Wilkinson wound up living with Umber, whom she had met at the inquiry. But she never recovered from the incident, suffered increasingly from depression, and eventually committed suicide. In the spring of 2004 retired Chief Inspector George Sharp receives a letter signed 'Junius' reproaching him for botching the 1981 investigation. Sharp confronts Umber, whose explanation for being at the scene of the tragedy has always seemed dubious. Obligated to accept Umber's denial of authorship of the letter, he nonetheless forces him to join in a search for the real culprit - and hence the long concealed truth about what happened 23 years previously. It is a quest that both will later regret having embarked upon. Too late they come to understand that some mysteries are better PB $19.95

The Devil's Star

It's a sweltering summer in Oslo when a young woman is found murdered in her flat. One finger has been cut off, and beneath her eyelid is a tiny red diamond in the shape of a five pointed star. Detective Harry Hole is assigned to the case with Tom Waaler - a colleague Harry suspects of running an arms smuggling gang and of having murdered his partner - and initially he refuses to become involved. But he is already on notice to quit the force and is left with no choice but to drag himself out of his alcoholic stupor and get to work. Five days later, a man reports his wife missing. When her severed finger is found wearing a ring mounted with the same star-shaped red diamond, it seems Oslo has a serial killer on its hands. A riddle of fives: five points to the star, five fingers on the hand, and every fifth day a new victim to be counted. Harry is determined to prove that his hunch about Waaler is right, and he begins to wonder whether his enemy is somehow bound up with the killings. In his pursuit of the truth behind both mysteries, Harry unwittingly finds himself on the run from the police, forced to make difficult decisions about his future as a detective. TP $32.95

Sky Hunter: X-Battalion (Sky Hunters 01)

The first book in a new series revolving around the most elite group of combat helicopters in the armed service, the Night Stalkers--the same unit who flew the choppers during the raid in Mogadishu depicted in Black Hawk Down. Bobby Autry is one of the best in the world at what he does. An elite combat chopper pilot, Autry has been tested under fire and always come out on top. But his new assignment might change all that. He's been tasked to lead a new unit of the elite Night Stalkers, a unit that can outfly the rest of the pilots in SOAR (Special Operations Air Regiment), outshoot the best gunners in the SEALs or Deltas, and operate as interpedently as the most lawless guerillas. The results: an experimental unit expected to fail: the X-Battalion. It won't be easy. The pilots he has at his command are the craziest, most dangerous, most unpredictable men in the military, men capable of thinking beyond rules and regulations, but men equally capable of breaking them. Autry will need every one of them if they are to survive their first mission. North Korean dictator Kim Il Sung had procured a weapon of apocalyptic destruction, and all intelligence points to his willingness to use it within the next 48 hours. If he deploys the weapon, he will poison the entire planet with radioactive fallout. The only way to stop him is with a group that can move silently, strike powerfully, and not worry about breaking a few rules along the way. The only way to stop him: X-Battalion. PB $18.95
