Information on the Infinitas Groups

New members always welcome at all the groups, if interested just come along.

SF Discussion Group: Meets on the first Thursday of each month (excluding January) at 6.30pm in the shop. A topic is chosen each month by the attendees of the group for the following meeting. Contact the shop for the next topic. Always a lively discussion of science in the news, films, books and ideas. The next meeting is February 2nd with the topic of 'The Best (and worst) of 2005'.

Review Group: The review group meets on the third Thursday of each month at 6.30pm. Two books (usually one science fiction, one fantasy) are chosen by group members for each meeting with participants encouraged to have read at least one prior to the meeting and bring their review/s along for discussion. The discussion is generally serious and insightful.

Next meeting February 16th. All welcome.

February Bring review/s of some favourites
March Jennifer Fallon Medallon
Robert A Heinlein Stranger In A Strange Land

Writers' Group: The group is for people who are currently writing (or even trying to write) science fiction, fantasy and horror related stories and pieces. If you think this might describe you, and you'd like to get involved in a group with others who understand what the genre is about, why not come along. Meetings are the 3rd Saturday of each month. Check out the website for more details.

Children of the Gate (Tears of Artamon 03)

Gavril Nagarian is believed dead - perished in the heat of battle. But the Lord Drakhaon of Azhkendir lives on. Now he is entrusted with a sacred mission: to rescue the aged Magus, who has been kidnapped and in whose possession are the five priceless rubies that compose the fabled Tears of Artamon. Ancient law decrees that whoever possesses the coveted stones has the power to impose his law over the five princedoms in the Empire of New Rossiya. But the task exacts a cost. The Drakhaoul that destroyed his forebears has penetrated Gavril's psyche and is gaining power over his soul. With the dark forces seeking immortality inside him, Gavril must feed on the blood of innocents - or die. Toppled by the loss of the Tears of Artamon, Emperor Eugene of Tielen is tormented by his own daemon. Now he must defend his lands against King Enguerrand of Francia who claims ownership of the Tears. But both men share a common goal: to destroy Gavril Nagarian and the Drakhaoul that lives within him once and for all. Ingenious and unforgettable, CHILDREN OF THE SERPENT GATE delivers a thrilling conclusion to the epic trials of a man of honour in a world in chaos - a calamity that can only be laid to rest by an Emperor's Tears. TP $32.95

The Olive Readers

A young woman writes to us from a future we would all shiver to inhabit.

Imagine a future without a past, a time without memory, a state in which nationality, ancestry, tradition, language, history have no place. Governing this world is a hyper-organised system of corporations, a network of companies, each responsible for a particular product, each with a workforce conditioned to one end... But somewhere, a clandestine group is operating to preserve the past...

In the Olive producing region of Olea, The Readers are smuggling and storing books in a secret library hidden away in the house of Jephzat and her family. When her sister disappears under suspicious circumstances, and her parents are hastily re-located by the Company, Jephzat is ordered to remain in the house, unaware of the organisation operating from its hidden room. Alone and facing the suspicion and hostility of the villagers, she falls in love with Homer, an olive picker she once rescued from the hands of Company Commissioners - and a long-time member of The Readers.

As Homer introduces her to the library, and her hunger for knowledge grows, so do her questions, and soon she finds herself heavily and dangerously involved not only in the recovery and preservation of books, but in a secret plan that is set to endanger Jephzat herself and her beloved family.

HC $45

L A Banks

The Bitten (Vampire Huntress 04)

With the vampire civil war prevented and deadly were-demons defeated, Damali Richards and her lover, Carlos Rivera, are looking forward to their new lives together, until a Master vampire steals one of the keys that opens the sixth seal foretold in the Book of Revelations, threatening to destroy the balance between the Light and Dark and engulf the world in Armageddon. PB $19.95

The Damned (Vampire Huntress 06)

When Lilith, the consort of the Un-Named One, releases the Damned to wreak havoc on all humankind, Damali, Carlos, and the Guardians race against time to stop the horrific infection spawned by these creatures of hell by finding and beheading the evil Lilith. TP $30.95

Song of Unmaking

When the sound of order meets the force of chaos, can one woman contain them both? Stubborn, single-minded and steadfast...

In her quest to save the Aurelian Empire, Valeria reached for too much power too quickly and it has rooted a darkness inside her. Unable to confess the truth, Valeria turns to Kerrec, her former mentor and one of the elite Riders. But Kerrec is also deeply wounded, and his darkness is deeper than hers though he refuses to face it—until his weakness nearly destroys the Riders and their immortal white stallions.

Kerrec is sent from the Mountain on a desperate quest for healing. Valeria is forbidden to follow him, but she does anyway, driven by a power she cannot understand. Once again the threat of war and unrest is spread throughout the land, the barbarian hordes have returned and it is Valeria—and Kerrec—who must gather their strength and their wounded magic to protect all that they believe in...

But who will believe in them? PB $18.95

Terry BrooksMagic Kingdom For Sale - Sold! (Magic Kingdom)*

Tobias S BuckellCrystal Rain*

Twenty-seven years after washing up on the shores with no memory of his past, John deBrun discovers that he retains an understanding about a mythical artifact and becomes the world of Nanagada's only chance for survival against an attack by the fearsome Azteca. HC $51.95

Jim ButcherGrave Peril (Dresden Files 03)*

Harry Dresden's faced some pretty terrifying foes during his career. Giant scorpions. Oversexed vampires. Psychotic werewolves. It comes with the territory when you're the only professional wizard in the Chicago area phone book.

But in all Harry's years of supernatural sleuthing, he's never faced anything like this: the spirit world's gone loco. All over Chicago, ghosts are causing trouble - and not just of the door-slammng, boo-shouting variety. These ghosts are tormented, violent, and deadly. Someone - or something - is purposely stirring them up to wreak unearthly havoc. But why? And why do so many of the victims have ties to Harry? If Harry doesn't figure it out soon, he could wind up a ghost himself . . . PB $19.95

Death Masks (Dresden Files 05)

Harry Dresden, Chicago 's only practising professional wizard, should be happy that business is pretty good for a change. But now he's getting more than he bargained for: A duel with the Red Court of Vampires' champion, who must kill Harry to end the war between vampires and wizards . . . Professional hit men using Harry for target practice . . . The missing Shroud of Turin . . . A handless and headless corpse the Chicago police need identified . . . Not to mention the return of Harry's ex-girlfriend Susan, who's still struggling with her semi-vampiric nature. And who seems to have a new man in her life. Some days, it just doesn't pay to get out of bed. No matter how much you're charging. PB $19.95

Blood Rites (Dresden Files 06)

Lost items found. Paranormal Investigations. Consulting. Advice. Reasonable rates. No Love Potions, Endless Purses, or Other Entertainment. For Harry Dresden, Chicago's only professional wizard, there have been worse assignments than going undercover on the set of an adult film. Dodging flaming monkey poo, for instance. Or going toe-to-leaf with a walking plant monster. Still, there's something more troubling than usual about his newest case. The film's producer believes he's the target of a sinister entropy curse - but it's the women around him who are dying, in increasingly spectacular ways.

Harry's doubly frustrated because he got involved with this bizarre mystery only as a favour to Thomas, his flirtatious, self-absorbed vampire acquaintance of dubious integrity. Thomas has a personal stake in the case Harry can't quite figure out, until his investigation leads him straight to Thomas's oversexed vampire family. PB $19.95

Orson Scott CardTreason*

A republication of a 1978 classic finds the fate of the oppressed planet of Treason in the hands of heir Lanik Mueller, a man who possesses unique regenerative powers and who has uncovered a treacherous conspiracy that prompts him to launch a desperate plan. TP $30.95

Giles Carwyn & Todd FahnestockHeir of Autumn*

In the brutal world of Ohndarien, ruled by the Children of the Seasons, Brophy, the Heir to Autumn, falls victim to betrayal and deceit and is exiled, left to survive with only the aid of an ambiguous spy and concubine sorceress and to discover the secret hidden in the Vastness to save the kingdom from destruction. A first novel. HC $52.95

Arthur C ClarkeThe Deep Range*

Since the beginning of time it had worked its will on humanity, and for as long as man could remember, he had struggled against its power. But in the 21st century the battle was won: the sea, mankind's age-old enemy, had finally been conquered. Professionals like Walter Franklin now patrolled the infinite savannahs of the oceans, harvesting from the plankton prairies as crop which kept the world fed. But like that other great frontier, space, the sea had not yet yielded up all its secrets. Men like Franklin would never rest until its every fathomless mystery had been challenged. PB $21.95

Hal ClementMission of Gravity (Science Fiction Masterworks 62)*

Mesklin is a vast, inhospitable, disc-shaped planet, so cold that its oceans are liquid methane and its snows are frozen ammonia. It is a world spinning dizzily, a world where gravity can be a crushing 700 times greater than Earth's, a world too hostile for human explorers. But the planet holds secrets of inestimable value, and an unmanned probe that has crashed close to one of its poles must be recovered. Only the Mesklinites, the small creatures so bizarrely adapted to their harsh environment can help. And so Barlennan, the resourceful and courageous captain of the Mesklinite ship Bree, sets out on an heroic and appalling journey into the terrible unknown . . . PB $19.95

Elaine CunninghamShadows in the Darkness (Changeling Detective)*

Unfairly discharged from her Rhode Island vice squad after a routine bust goes wrong, GiGi Gelman starts her own private investigative business and takes as her first assignment the case of a fourteen-year-old runaway who may have been kidnapped, a situation that inadvertently reveals truths about her own mysterious past. PB $17.95

Shadows in the Starlight (Changeling Detective)

Losing her position with the Providence vice squad after a bust goes bad, GiGi Gelman starts her own private investigation business, is tempted by the devilish Ian Forest to investigate the mystery of her lineage, and is called upon to help an adversary to locate his missing wife and son.

HC $49.95

John R DannSong of the Earth (Song)*

A prequel to Song of the Axe finds the original prehistoric tribal family leader, Grae, rescued from a volcano by the powerful daughters of River Woman and leading his people into central and eastern Europe in search of safety and a better life. PB $19.95

Philip K DickA Scanner Darkly*

A drug dealer of the future periodically moves away from his spaced-out world to become an informer for narcotics agents until he becomes unable to separate his two personalities, in a graphic version of the novel composed of stills from the animated motion picture. PB $32.95 CD $70

Confessions of a Crap Artist

Jack Isidore is a 'crap artist', a collector of crackpot ideas and worthless objects. His beliefs make him a man apparently unsuited for real life and so his sister, an edgy and aggressive woman, and his brother-in-law, a crass and foul-mouthed businessman, feel compelled to rescue him from it. But, observed through Jack's murderously innocent gaze, Fay and Charley Hume are seen to be just as obsessed as Jack. Their obsessions may be a little more acceptable than Jack's but they are uglier. And, in the end and thanks to Jack's intervention, theirs lead to tragedy . . . PB $22.95

David Drake & Eric FlintThe Dance of Time (Belisarius)*

Armed with a mystical jewel from the future, Belisarius, the greatest general of his age, musters the forces of humankind against the evil Malwa, who are ruled by a monster from the future that is part demon and part computer, as they prepare of the epic final confrontation between good and evil, with the fate of the entire world at stake. HC $52.95

Terry GoodkindChainfire (Sword of Truth 09)*

CHAINFIRE continues the internationally bestselling Sword of Truth series; Terry Goodkind's stirring epic set in a fascinating world rich in history and drama. Caught by surprise in an ambush, Richard Rahl's life now hangs by a thread. As his friends try desperately to save him, he struggles - losing blood and deeply confused - to communicate his greatest fear: Kahlan is missing. But no one present even knows her name: even though they have fought beside her for years... PB $19.95

Steven HarperDead Man on the Moon (LCSI)*

When the body of a man without a space suit is discovered on the airless surface of the moon, Luna City investigator and newcomer Noah Skyler struggles to identify the victim as well as the reasons for his death. TP $30.95

Elizabeth HaydonElegy For A Lost Star (Symphony of Ages 05)*

Elegy for a Lost Star sets the stage for a major turning point in the Symphony of Ages series. The dragon Anwyn - who has lain for three years in deathlike sleep in a grave of rock and black coal is freed by the cataclysm that concluded Requiem For The Sun. Disoriented and confused, she remembers only two things - the person who trapped her in dragon form and locked her in the grave - Rhapsody - and an all-encompassing desire to wreak vengeance. Meanwhile, Achmed, the Firbolg king, resumes rebuilding his shattered home, while a guild of merciless assassins set about taking revenge on him for the killing of their leader. A horribly deformed but magical being finds its way through a carnival of freaks to the palace of an evil despot, who sees in it the potential to be the instrument by which his plans of conquest and brutal domination of a continent will be realized. With the rise of new leaders, good and evil, the long-awaited birth of the Child of Time, the dark plans of assassins and rulers, a confrontation that shakes the relationship of the Three, and a battle to the death between two dragons of unimaginable elemental power, the seeds of chaos are planted for a war that will, by its end, consume half of the world. PB $19.95

Amanda HemingwayTraitor's Sword (Sangreal 02)*

Bartlemy Goodman is approximately 1500 years old. An albino of Greek parentage he was born in Byzantium amidst the decline of the Roman Empire and now resides in the village of Thornyhill, England with his dog, Hoover. Bartlemy is one of the Gifted. But long experience has taught him the perils of the power of the witch-kind and so throughout the ages has channelled his considerable talents into cooking, his culinary prowess becoming the stuff of legend: he worked for the Borgias, was among the first to discover chocolate and even taught the likes of Escoffier. On a warm evening in 1991 a young homeless woman holding a baby turns up on Bartlemy's doorstep and he senses destiny at work. The woman's name is Annie Ward and her son, Nathan, is an exceptional child as Annie cannot account for his conception. Her husband Daniel died in a car accident so Nathan cannot be his. Soon Bartlemy comes to believe that the boy was created beyond the Gate of Death by a superior being for a special purpose, one that may threaten all of witch-kind and that it is his job to protect him. Whilst Nathan grows and Bartlemy continues to watch over the small family, strange occurrences begin to plague the village. The Thorn family, who gave their name to the village have lived close by since pre-Christian times, were once the guardians of a strange cup of greenish stone and set with jewels. When it was lost; sold to a Jewish collector in Austria by the black sheep of the family who absconded with it in the 1920's, the family's fortune soon followed suit. Rumoured to have been stolen by the Nazis during the war it has now turned up at Sotheby's and the last of the Thorns is determined to get it back by proving the original sale false. Bartlemy joins his friend, Rowena Thorn, in her campaign. But the matter becomes complicated and sinister when Nathan discovers the body of the Austrian owner in the wood nearby and begins to experience disturbing visions involving the cup itself. TP $29.95

John Marco

Sword of Angels

An all-new dose of John Marco's trademark combination of morally ambiguous and complex action, tight plotting and vivid characterisation. This is action-driven fantasy, packed with magic, betrayal and battle, from one of the most exciting authors in world fantasy. Set in a richly built world, which beautifully evokes magical lands, is detailed in its dissection of motive and compelling in its characters, Sword of Angels is the latest work from a natural and mature storyteller revelling in his ability. Building on the success of the acclaimed Tyrants and Kingstrilogy, and his growing fan base in the UK and US, this is a perfect novel for new readers and old fans of John Marco's work alike. HC $55 TP $32.95

Susan R MatthewsWarring States (Jurisdiction)*

The Ragnarok's legal status has been ambiguous since it shot its way out of Taisheki Station to escape a threat against the lives of its innocent crew. They've gotten away with this act of almost-mutiny so far because the Bench has bigger fish to fry: who will replace the dead First Judge, and rule over all of Jurisdiction Space?

Ship's Inquisitor Andrej Koscuisko hopes to take advantage of this period of chaos and unrest to see his bond-involuntary Security slaves somehow freed and sent to Gonebeyond space. The personal conflict he is experiencing between his horror of the tortures he has sworn never to inflict again and his psychological addiction to the intense pleasure he experienced at the work has surprised and distressed him, and yet he cannot afford to let his private agonies interfere with his purpose. But an incident that happened years ago in a dark cold street in Port Rudistal—the site of the Domitt Prison—has bound Andrej Koscuisko to a man who, all unknowingly, holds the key to a murder that's changed the course of history. His ship is gone, his Security are gone, there are only Bench Intelligence Specialist Jils Ivers and one young Emandisan pilot by his side. More alone than he has ever been in his life Andrej must face the deadliest threat he has ever encountered—the unknown enemy who murdered the First Secretary at Chilleau Judiciary, and set all of Jurisdiction Space into anarchy and horror. TP $34.95

The Forgotten Beasts of Eld is a spellbinding tale of chilling sorcery, human complexities, and dynastic war. Sybel is just sixteen when she is given a baby to raise. Born and brought up on Eld Mountain, with only the fantastic creatures called there by wizardry as playmates, she knows nothing of humankind. . . until the baby awakens emotions she never knew she had. And when Coren, the man who brought the baby to Sybel, returns to Eld, her serenity is shattered once again. PB $22.95

Solstice Wood

The death of her beloved grandfather forces bookstore owner Sylvia Lynn to return to her childhood home in upstate New York to confront the grandmother who had raised her and the nearby woods that had both enticed and terrified her, and encounters members of the local Fiber Guild, a group of women seeking to bind the power of the woods into their weavings. HC $49.95

Sean McMullen Australian AuthorVoidfarers (Moonworlds 03)*

At first Wayfarer Inspector Danolarian thought the huge oval thing that had fallen from the sky was a dragon's egg. When it opened, however, he knew that it was much, much worse. His world was being invaded by pitiless sorcerers from Lupan, who could sweep whole armies aside, and even defeat the invulnerable glass dragons. Surrender or flight were the only options... but not for Inspector Danolarian, his Wayfarer Constables, and his sweetheart, the sorceress Lavenci.

Although Danolarian is no sorcerer, he's no ordinary Wayfarer either. Faced with civilisation crumbling around him, and organised resistance shattered by the invincible magic of the Lupanians, he chances upon an unlikely ally and begins to fight back. It won't be easy, for he has to rally the demoralised sorcerers of Alberin, organise its terrified citizens, stay one step ahead of his own past, and, most importantly, survive a dinner party with Lavenci's mother. HC $49.95

The Various (Various 01)

There have been stories of the 'little people' - piskies, fairies, call them what you will - ever since the world began. Whispered rumours are all that they amount to, until a twelve year-old child discovers the truth, hidden away among briars and brambles. The truth is strange and wild - and sometimes deadly. This is the story of Midge, abandoned with her eccentric uncle during the holidays, and her discovery of the Various. Their existence has been kept secret since the beginning of time, but when their world begins to clash with that of human beings, their livelihood is threatened with extinction. A compelling tale of extraordinary tribes who struggle for survival in the land of the human giants - you may even be tempted to seek them out for yourself . . . With great reviews from the UK and from the stunning David Fickling Books list, this is a wonderfully imaginative story of love and loyalty, and is the first in a powerful trilogy. PB $18.95

The Intruders

Joel Demetrius is quite looking forward to moving in with his new step-family, but as far as his sister Cassie's concerned, they're nothing but intruders. She doesn't want anything to do with Gerald and his two sons, and to make matters worse their new home is a derelict old house, neglected for decades. Joel thinks it's interesting. Cassie thinks it's a dump. But his sister isn't the only reason the house doesn't feel like a home. As fascinated as he is by the place, Joel has to admit there's something not quite right about it. Not only does he keep seeing things out of the corner of his eye, but his sleep is plagued by nightmares. He can't seem to stop dreaming about a terrified boy who keeps repeating the same fractured prayer: IF I SHOULD DIE BEFORE I WAKE, I PRAY THE LORD MY SOUL TO TAKE... As events in the house become harder and harder to explain, it seems that the line between nightmare and reality is getting steadily more blurred. And when the battle between Cassie and her step-brothers draws everyone deeper into the mystery, all four kids are forced to confront the question of just who the intruders really are. HC $27.95

Quarterly Essay 20: A Time For War

Australia as a Military Power Quarterly Essay 20

Quarterly Essay 20 combines riveting storytelling with fresh and provocative analysis. In it, bestselling author John Birmingham delves into our new military myths. Why has Anzac Day returned and Vietnam faded? Why do we love war stories again? What does this mean for the nation? What does it mean for the troops on the ground?

Birmingham begins with an exhilarating account of Operation Anaconda, which tells of the crucial contribution of Australian special forces in Afghanistan. As Australian troops return to that country, this is particularly timely.

According to Birmingham, the Vietnam War Syndrome is dead. Confidence has returned in the use of military action as a political tool. Australian defence policy has become more assertive, and our armed forces are being radically restructured and hardened in line with this. Then there are the cultural changes, like the sanctification of Anzac Day and the government's use of military imagery for election purposes. Is this simply a response to the September 11 atrocities? Or is there something deeper and more significant going on? PB $14.95

and open up demon eyes.

Find the answer, quell the curse -- or things will surely get much worse...

Paige has a new job -- and it's perfect for her. She's working at a museum, conducting tours through a traveling Grecian display. It's temporary, but it's better than nothing, and it means she gets to see Chase, a really hot guy who started working at the museum at about the same time she did. One day, though, a big stone ovoid meant to represent a dragon's egg turns up, and it gives her the creeps. When Paige asks Phoebe and Piper to come check it out, they agree there's definitely something evil about that weird old egg.

Later, after a long day of tours, Paige and Chase relax near the artifact. Without warning, Chase, who knows only a few Greek words, begins speaking in the language. His monologue opens the egg, releasing a demon that promptly assumes Chase's form. When Paige tries to kill it, it splits in half, forming two identical Chases. With the real Chase unable to explain what happened and demons on the loose, the Charmed Ones will have to count on the Power of Three to figure out what's doubling these demons...and why. PB $14.95

Paul S Kemp

The Spider Queen Lives Again

But something is different, something her priestesses can hear in the winds, feel in their spirits, and for a select few see with their own eyes. The Demonweb Pits, removed from the Abyss to take its place among the lower planes, is more dangerous, more horrifying than anyone has ever imagined. Teeming with feral spiders bent on ripping each other to pieces -- killing, eating, and killing again -- the blasted landscape of Lolth's personal hell is still forming.

Quentel Baenre, with the tattered remnants of her expedition continuing to plot against her, crosses that spider-infested ground in hopes of answering the call of her reborn goddess. If she can make it to Lolth's side, can she even imagine what plans the Queen of the Demonweb Pits has had for her all along?

This latest title drives the civil upheaval among one of the most popular races in the Forgotten Realms setting to its epic conclusion. Several of the previous titles in this series hit the New York Times best-seller list upon initial release. Best-selling author R.A. Salvatore wrote the prologue to Resurrection and consulted on the series, lending his expertise as the author who brought drow society to the forefront of the Forgotten Realms setting. PB $14

One hundred years ago, the forge world of Chaeroneia disappeared amidst rumours of corruption and civil war. Now it has returned and the once teeming factory planet is now a silent sentinel floating through space. Is it an empty tomb or a foul nest of Chaos? That is the question facing Captain Alaric of the Grey Knights. The elite daemon hunters are charged with a new mission; to investigate Chaeroneia, determine the presence of any daemonic influence and terminate with extreme prejudice. However, nothing can prepare even the Grey Knights for what they find on the planet's surface. One hundred years of isolation has corrupted the engineer-priests of the Adeptus Mechanicus beyond all imaginings, and their monstrous, possessed machines prowl the surface like predators. In order to complete their mission, the Grey Knights must rely on their faith, and trust a ghost lurking in the machine! PB $16

Richard HawkeSpeak of the Devil*

Meet Fritz Malone, New York's sharpest PI an outsider with an insider's nose for City Hall politics, and a man who knows the rules just well enough to work around them.

It all begins on a perfect Manhattan morning. A gunman's bullets shatter the festival atmosphere of the world-famous Thanksgiving Day parade. Only one man in the throng sees it happening - thankfully for the unsuspecting crowd gathered for the parade, he's the right man for the job.

Fritz Malone leaps into action; but it's only after he has risked his life and ruined his holiday that he discovers how bad things are. He's been around enough to know the standard procedure, and this sure ain't it. Without warning he has wandered into an insidious game involving cold-hearted criminals, crooked cops, and a long buried secret that implicates the city's most powerful players. The only way out is to put himself on the case and to dive into a world thick with danger and possibilities too horrible to ponder.

Brilliantly evoking New York with a thrilling plot full of pace, intensity and guile, and a hero who is as witty as he is gritty and as wry as he is resourceful, Speak of the Devil is destined to become an instant classic and to captivate readers around the world.

A first novel. TP $32.95

Reginald HillThe Collaborators*

When Janine Simonian was dragged roughly from her cell to face trial as a collaborator in the days of reckoning that followed the liberation of France, she refused to conceal her shaven skull from the jeering crowds that greeted her. Before the jury of former Resistance members pledged to extract vengeance on all who had connived in Nazi rule, Janine stood proudly in court – and pleaded guilty to the charges. Why did so many French men and women collaborate with the Nazi occupation forces whilst others gave their lives in resistance? Were the motives of those who betrayed their country always selfish – and those of the Resistance always noble? The Collaborators is a superb novel of conscience and betrayal that portrays the human dilemmas brought about by the Nazi occupation of France, and asks uncomfortable questions about the priorities of personal and national loyalty in time of war. PB $19.95

Jeff LindsayDearly Departed Dexter (Dexter Morgan)*

Miami's best-dressed serial killer is back and on the prowl, at least he would be if he could shake off his permanent shadow. Ever since their paths first crossed, Sergeant Doakes hasn't let Dexter Morgan out of his sight. Dexter may well be the Miami PD's blood-spatter analyst, but Sgt. Doakes has a pretty good idea of how Dex likes to spend his free time and he's determined to catch him in the act. Dexter hasn't killed in months and is getting twitchy. To throw Doakes off his scent, he's spending more time with Rita, his girlfriend. But no matter how many cosy nights they spend in front of the TV, Doakes is still parked outside watching the house when Dexter leaves in the morning. Then a body turns up, horribly mutilated and barely alive. It's the work of a torturer extraordinaire - a man who abducts his victims and keeps them alive for weeks while he performs his hideous operations. To trap the torturer, Doakes and Dexter will have to work together, if they can trust each other. It's a devil's pact and one of them will have to be the bait. . . . Furiously fast, funny and thrilling, Dearly Devoted Dexter proves what the critics have been saying: Dexter Morgan is one of the most engaging new characters in contemporary crime fiction. TP $29.95

The Scold's Bride

Mean, bitter Mathilda Gillespie has been dead for days - wrists slashed, pills spilled, body cold in the bath. Her death shouts suicide, but would even Mathilda have been crazy enough to force over her own head a rusted metal cage grotesquely laced with nettles and daisies? This brilliant psychological thriller takes us on a compelling and unpredictable tour of the tensions between generations, and along a trail of grief made obscure by the mysterious loss of Mathilda's detailed, shocking and very personal diaries. PB $19.95

The Dark Room

The newspapers reported the case with relish. When Jane 'Jinx' Kingsley, daughter of a ruthless millionaire, emerges from a coma, she remembers nothing of the last few days. Not that she's been jilted by her fiance, Leo, and betrayed by her best friend, Meg, nor her own supposed suicide attempt. Then the memories begin to surface - memories of utter desperation and absolute terror. With the disappearance of Leo and Meg, the police seem determined to trap her into an admission of murder. While they investigate, Jinx faces the worst nightmare of her life - confronting her memories and unravelling the truth.

The Shape of Snakes

It is 1978 in London - the winter of discontent. Strikes are an everyday occurrence and the Ranelaghs' neighbour, Mad Annie, is discovered dying in the gutter, almost obscured by piles of rubbish. The other residents do little to disguise their satisfaction at her death and, in this environment of growing racial and class unrest, M. Ranelagh, the narrator, takes up a solitary, and dangerously unpopular, defence against the vilification of Mad Annie. So dangerous that M. and her husband Sam flee the poisonous climate of England. Twenty years later, they return from overseas and M. begins acting on her secretly and painstakingly collected research to piece together what really happened. But is it justice for Annie's murder she's after or is it revenge for something very different? PB $19.95

Fox Evil

When elderly Ailsa Lockyer-Fox is found dead in her garden, dressed only in nightclothes, the finger of suspicion points at her wealthy, landowning husband, Colonel James Lockyer-Fox. A Coroner's inquest gives a verdict of 'natural causes' but the gossip surrounding James refuses to go away. Why? Because he's guilty? Or because resentful women rule the roost in the isolated Dorset village where he lives? Shenstead has become a ghost village and, with only five houses in permanent occupation, it's a place of too few people and too many secrets. Into this embattled community comes a group of New Age travellers with dreams of laying claim to a tract of disputed land, bordering the Lockyer-Fox estate. Their leader, Fox Evil, is a man of contradictions - charismatic, unpredictable - until he demonstrates that acquiring a stake in Shenstead is the least of his intentions ... PB $19.95

The Echo

Who was Billy Blake - an alcoholic vagrant who quoted poetry and preached redemption - and why did he die? Mike Deacon, a cynical, somewhat discredited journalist, wants to know. He's intrigued by both Blake's death - could anyone really die of starvation in one of the wealthiest districts in London? - and by the beautiful woman who found him, Amanda Powell. Amanda Powell avoided the Press then - why is she now obsessed by Blake and his life? Deacon begins his own investigation to find out if her interest could possibly be connected to her merchant banker husband who absconded abroad with ten million pounds, five years ago. Since then he has not been seen ... yet she has all the trappings of a very rich woman PB $19.95

The Breaker

A woman's brutally damaged body washes up on a lonely beach. Twelve hours later, her three-year-old daughter is found, wandering abandoned twenty miles away from her mother. Why was Kate Sumner murdered, yet her child, a witness, allowed to live? Police investigation centres on a young actor, a loner with an obsession for pornography who lies about his relationship with Kate. And what of her? Is she the 'respectable' woman her husband claims her to be? And why does their daughter scream in terror every time he tries to pick her up? PB $19.95

Disordered Minds

In 1970, Harold Stamp, a retarded twenty-year-old was convicted on disputed evidence and a retracted confession of brutally murdering his grandmother the one person who understood and protected him. Less than three years later he is dead, driven to suicide by isolation and despair. A fate befitting a murderer, perhaps, but what if he were innocent? Thirty years on, Jonathan Hughes, an anthropologist specialising in social stereotyping, comes across the case by accident. He finds alarming disparities in the evidence and has little doubt that Stamp's conviction was a terrible miscarriage of justice. But how far is he prepared to go in the search for justice? Is the forgotten story of one friendless young man compelling enough to make him leave his books and face his own demons? And with what result? If Stamp didn't murder Grace Jeffries then somebody else did, which means there's a dangerous killer still at large ... PB $19.95

Acid Row

'Acid Row' is the name the beleaguered inhabitants give to their housing estate. It is a no-man's land of single mothers and fatherless children - where angry, alienated youth control the streets. Into this battlefield comes Sophie Morrison, a young doctor visiting a patient in Acid Row. Little does she know that she is entering the home of a known paedophile ... and with reports circulating that a tormented child called Amy has disappeared, the vigilantes are out in force. Soon Sophie is trapped at the centre of a terrifying siege, held hostage by a violent psychopath. Whipped to a frenzy by unsubstantiated rumour, the mob unleashes its hatred - against authority ... the law ... and 'the pervert'. 'Protecting Amy' becomes the catch-all defence for the terrible events that follow. And if murder is part of it, then so be it. But is Amy really missing? PB $19.95
